MIDDLE STATES SOCCER CAMP CAMP RULES

1. Possession or use of tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, narcotic drugs, or any other illegal substance is strictly prohibited.
2. Weapons and any other items that could endanger either property or individuals are strictly prohibited. (Example: lighters, matches, fireworks, etc.)
3. Rooms must be kept clean and orderly throughout the week. All furniture and fixtures assigned to a room must remain in the room.
4. Campers are not permitted in any other campers' rooms unless invited.
5. Tampering with another camper's personal property is strictly prohibited.
6. Campers are required to follow the daily schedule, including being in their assigned rooms at bed-check time.
7. Soccer boots must not be worn inside any building on campus; however, flats, sandals, or other footwear must be worn when walking on campus or in the dorms.
8. Screens must be placed in all open windows. No camper is permitted to sit on the window sill of an open window.
9. Campers will be held responsible for any damage they cause to the camp facility.
10. Insubordination to staff and harassment of fellow campers is strictly forbidden.

Failure to adhere to these rules will result in enforcement of disciplinary system and possibly dismissal.
